Re: Letter of Offer

Dear Clay

I am pleased to offer you employment in the position with us at Sol Energy. We look forward to you making a positive contribution to the business and an employment relationship that is mutually rewarding.

Your remuneration will be paid into your nominated account on a fortnightly basis and we would be happy to discuss any particular needs you may have for additional voluntary deductions or allocations. Should you perceive that there may be any difficulties with the timing of the first pay period then please feel free to discuss these with me in confidence.

The details for your position of Software Development are as follows:

Commencement Date	February 2026 (start date to be discussed)
Remuneration	$77,000 per annum gross salary, plus superannuation
Normal Hours of Work	Permanent full time
Reporting To	Wayne Peacock, Engineer

Employee superannuation guarantee payments shall be paid into a complying fund, as nominated by you, at the super guarantee rate determined by the Australian Taxation Office.

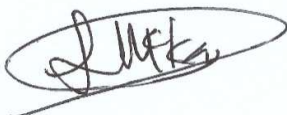

All staff have annual reviews incorporating performance assessment. A standard six (6) month probation period applies to this position and we anticipate that you will actively participate in objective reviews of your role and responsibilities during that period.

If you wish to accept this offer, please complete, sign and return the attached Employment Agreement. An Employment Pack will be forwarded to you upon receipt of your acceptance of this offer.

If you have any queries regarding our offer, please contact myself and I will be happy to answer any questions you have.

We are looking forward to having you officially join us and would like to extend a warm welcome to you.

Yours sincerely,

SIMON MCKAY
Director
Sol Energy
